

CHILD Advocates Network

The Institute for School Innovation needs your help to improve and expand Project CHILD. Your state's leaders need to hear from parents and supporters with personal experience about Project CHILD. If Project CHILD has made a positive difference for you or your child, please take part in the improvement of our schools by joining the CHILD Advocates Network.

Strength in numbers! We need to make policy leaders stand up and take notice of the improvement of our students due to Project CHILD.

The CHILD Advocates Network is a secure database, therefore we will not release your name or contact information to anyone else.
