

Dr. Sarah M. Butzin challenges those involved in the system to chart a new course in elementary education, and she provides readers with an inside look at Project CHILD, the innovative approach that is delivering results in classrooms across the nation. This book includes case studies from participating schools and standardized testing data. It takes the reader inside real classrooms to hear the voices of children, teachers and parents experiencing a new way of teaching and learning.

Joyful Classrooms

*in An Age of Accountability:
The Project CHILD Recipe for Success*

$20.00

Please make checks payable to ISI
(Institute for School Innovation)